DETROIT IS ASSURED OF ITS THIRD PENNANT

One More Victory and Tigers Will Have Coveted Flag Cinched---Athletics Down and Out.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PHILADELIPHIA, P.A., September 29.—Those Soxmen shoved the Athletics the down-and-out chuic to-day by taking the first section of the double-nder. After this faint defent, the Mackmen saily mussed the Chicago team the second mix-up, but the damage had already been done. Scores, 2 to 1 d 10 to 1 and 10 to 1,

One more victory for Detroit will clinch the title.

Had it not been for a costly brace of errors by young Rath and obtuseness on the paths, the Athletics would have taken both games. Plank deserved to win the opener, which ran ten indigs before the Sox got the decision. He outplehed Walsh, but didn't get the support.

Bender had an easy time of it in the second game. The Sox could not touch his service, while the Athletics (ore White's and Sutor's deliveries to shreds.

In the first game the Athletics took the lead in the fifth. Walsh walked Davis, but Murphy hit to Puriell and a double play resulted. Cole made a three-base must on Heltmuller, who came home when Lapp dropped a short single in left.

The Sox fied it in the seventh. With one out, Purtell whiked, but was stopped by Lapp trying to stent. Parent pushed a single to left and stole sevend. Rath fumbled Taunchill's grounder. Parent rushed to the plate while the youthful shortstop held the ball. Finally Rath threw home, but the chuck was wild, and Parent secred the tying run.

With intelligent base running, the Atbletics would have won anyway in the ninth. Colling beat out one to Altizer, and Baker followed with a safe crack to centre for a base. Davis thumped a single to right. Colling should have secored on the bit, for no play was made for him. Atz threw to Altizer, who whipped the ball to Parent, retiring Davis. Colling, who had turned back to third, then tried to get home, but was caught at the plate on Parent's heave to Payre.

third, then tried to get home, but was caught at the pane, on a active payer.

Baker took third on the outs, and with Murphy at the but unde a daring attempt to steal home, but was called out by Sheridan on a bairline decision. It was alugular that everybody who faced Walsh in this inning made a safe bit, but the Athletics couldn't get one run out of them.

The Sox won the game in the tenth, Payne bit a single, with one down, and Walsh was retired by Rath. Plank purposely walked Atz to take a chance on Attizer. The latter amacked one to right for a base, and Payne deposited the winning run at the plate. The Mackmen went out in order in the last half, Yaic Defeats Wesleyan.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., September 29.

With perfect football weather, Yale opened its 1909 series to-day by defeating Wesleyan 11 to 0. The individual star of the game was Rice, the Wesleyan fullback, who in the second half hit the strong Yale line again and again for gains, and who, with good support back of him, would have scored.

A series of the plunges by Daly and Philbin gave the first touchdown to Yalo, and quarterback runs by John-son led up to the second. Hobbs kicked
